The screenshot shows the Gizmo website home page. At the top left is the Gizmo logo, a stylized orange character with a 'G' shape, and the phone number 1300 275 449. The top right features the Gizmo logo with the tagline 'we've read the manuals'. A navigation menu includes links for home, services, gizmo deals, info centre, about gizmo, contact us, and bookings. Below the navigation is a 'Welcome' message and a search bar with a 'Gizmo Quick Links' dropdown and a 'go' button. The main content area features a large image of three smiling technicians with the text 'computer help, home delivered' and the Gizmo logo. Below this image is a red banner with the text 'Mon - Fri 8am to 10pm, Sat - Sun 9am to 6pm.' and 'Ph 1300 275 449'. The left sidebar contains a 'gizmo services' section with buttons for Home Networking, Computer Set Up, Repair & Tune Up, Upgrade Your Gear, Web & Email Security, Store & Backup Data, and Advisory Services. Below this is a 'gizmo links' section with buttons for Sign up for our newsletter, Read our testimonials, Tell a friend about Gizmo, and Become a Gizmotech. At the bottom of the sidebar is a circular icon with three people and the text 'Be a friend and tell them about gizmo'. The main content area has a section titled 'Computer help, home delivered.' with a paragraph of text: 'Gizmo brings computer technical help to your home. If your email's bouncing or your hard drive's had it, Gizmo can sort it out. Want to hook up a wireless network or upgrade your gear? Talk to Gizmo. We're an Aussie technical support company serious about making technology fun and simple for you.' Below this is another paragraph: 'Our mobile technicians and phone support crew are on call 7 days a week. We offer flat rates, fast response, expert help and a unique No Fix No Fee Guarantee! Plus, you get a specific appointment time so you won't be stuck waiting around all day!' and a call to action: 'Check out our services or contact us on 1300 275 449 and we'd love to help.' To the right of this text is a 'gizmo means...' section with a list of benefits: Rapid response, Flat fees, No fix. No fee. Guaranteed, Home or phone, and 7 days, each with a red checkmark. Below this is a blue box with the text 'no fix no fee guarantee' and the Microsoft Certified Partner logo.

Who is Gizmo?

Gizmo is an Australian company that provides comprehensive in-home or phone technical support for a wide range of technologies used in the home. As the computer and its related gadgets becomes more and more part of our everyday lives, Gizmo is here to help you get the most out of it.

What's the big idea?

Our vision is to remove the frustrations and complexity of technology and open our customers up to a world of new ideas, experiences, and opportunities. We love technology, we've read the manuals and we're serious about making technology fun and simple for you.

What do we do?

Our major support services include Home Networking, Repairs & Tune Ups, Upgrade Your Gear, Web & Email Security, Store & Backup Data and Show Me How, but if it's something that involves a computer, chances are we can help. Just get in touch and we can chat about what you need.
