Integrated property development

We develop property. We build property. We invest in property. We manage property.

Metroland Australia is an integrated and innovative property development company with activities in both the commercial and residential sectors. Our company is built on experience, diversity and efficiency.

Quite simply, we understand property. We know how to capitalise on its potential and maximise investment for our clients and shareholders.

Whether it's property development, investment, management or construction, Metroland's integrated group of companies continues to achieve exceptional growth year after year.

Property development is at our core

Metroland Australia has built its foundations on successful property development. Whether it's commercial or residential, Metroland is one of the fastest growing property development companies in Australia.

With our strategic insight and solid experience, we are able to identify property opportunities and maximise their development potential.

Our clients also benefit from great cost efficiencies, because our Construction division is able to carry out the development as part of the Metroland Group. Coupled with our procurement of building products from China, we offer a streamlined and integrated approach to property development.

We're proud of our property development portfolio. It's a portfolio full of success stories and reasons why Metroland is such a strong and dynamic company.
